DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Claim 1 is allowable over the art of record because the prior art does not teach a micro-mechanical device comprising the first end is coupled with the first conductive member and the second end is suspended above the second member, wherein the actuatable member is moveable in relation to the second member, and wherein the second member induces movement of the actuatable member, and in combination with the remaining claimed limitations.

Claim 21 is allowable over the art of record because the prior art does not teach a switch comprising an actuatable member coupled with the first member and second members and extending over the third member, the actuatable member capacitively coupling with the third member when the electric potential between the third member and the actuatable member reaches a switch potential, and in combination with the remaining claimed limitations.
